supplies needed:

- a dozen or so flat stones
- paintbrush and poster paint, markers or stickers
- bag or bowl

what to do:

1. Find stones in your backyard or a local garden center, and make sure they're nice and clean.
2. Pick a story theme, like space, magic or mystery.
3. Pass out a few stones to each kid, and decorate with paint, markers or stickers.
4. Place the stones in your bag or bowl, and have one kid pick a rock to start.
5. Have them start a made-up story with a sentence about the picture on the rock, and then pass it on to the next kid to continue the story. Encourage them to let their imaginations run wild!
